Derby Dinner Playhouse will present Agatha Christie's AND THEN THERE WERE NONE now through November 8, 2015.□

AND THEN THERE WERE NONE is the first hit theater production from the mistress of murder and mayhem herself, Agatha Christie. Adapted from her award-winning novel of the same name, the excitement heats up the stage right out of the gate! When ten strangers are trapped together on an island in a suspicious manor house, the mystery unfolds as the guests begin to disappear one by one. This superb thriller will keep everyone guessing "who did it" until the very end! □□□□

The brilliant cast includes Jon Huffman, David Myers, Bill Hanna, J.R. Stuart, Zachary Burrell, Janet Essenpreis, Brian Bowman, Tina Jo Wallace, Cary Wiger, and Rita Thomas. This production is directed by Producer Bekki Jo Schneider.

This production is absolutely SUPERB! What a way to kick off the Halloween season! Wonderfully cast, Tina Jo Wallace is a stand-out as Vera Claythorne, the mysterious host's secretary, who surely did not have her duties of this night listed in her job description! As Wallace interacts with long-time DDP veterans like Wiger, Myers, Stuart, Essenpreiss and Hanna, Bowman's charisma literally envelops the audience as they laugh at his one-liners, all the while searching for clues to the killer's identity.
