Cruising is one of the most spectacular, exciting ways to travel. Close your eyes and imagine arriving each morning at a diffferent, exotic locale, all without repacking your suitcase!

I am often in awe of the endless activities aboard the ships... truly boasting hundreds of ways to spend your valuable vacation time.

And speaking of value, a cruise vacations mixes the four most costly aspects of a trip into one price, taking away the stress of planning and budgeting travel from one destination to the next, nightly accommodations, activities, and FOOD!
