

Pirate Ship Suite at the Wildwood Inn

By: Angela Ash

Located in the heart of Florence, Kentucky, almost to Cincinnati but not too far from Louisville, is possibly the area's best little jewel. I hesitate to even refer to this property as a "hotel", because it is SO much more!

If you were hoping to find a place that looks just like every other hotel along the interstate, then your dismal dreams have been dashed, and replaced with a place of absolute wonder and adventure. Who needs a boring hotel room, when you could sleep in a tropical paradise, next to the Statue of Liberty, or even on the deck of a pirate ship?

The Pirate Ship Suite at Wildwood Inn is my absolute favorite! ( I know... I said that about Aladdin and the Tennessee Cave, but a girl has the right to change her mind!) This place is HUGE! Decorated like an authentic pirate ship on the high seas, this room is two stories, with a large bathroom with walk-in cave shower and a King bed on the main floor, with a bunk bed tucked under the stairs, which lead up to a giant jacuzzi tub, a dining table, television, and a pull-down full size bed. This is definitely a room for the entire family!

And hence the name, this property also boasts a large indoor pool and hot tub, along with a game room, seating areas, pool and ping pong, and children's climbing tunnels. You could literally spend all day here... that is, if you could talk yourself into leaving the cozy confines of your treehouse or racing themed suite. Don't worry. There are also pool-side rooms for your convenience.

The Wildwood Inn Tropical Dome & Theme Suites is undecidedly at the top of my list for unique hotels. However, in all of its diversity, it possesses such a "comfortable air". The staff is the friendliest I have yet to find, and the breakfast in the morning is a special treat, complete with waffles. This is a place where you can choose how your stay will be: fun and adventurous in the tropical dome and staying in an Arctic cave, or quiet and romantic, hardly leaving your Champagne Spa suite.▯ Whichever your preference, book your stay already!▯ Remember... the fantastic awaits!
