

Date Night In Paris

By Angela Ash

The Eye Of Napoleon will be hanging around the Frazier History Museum a little longer than expected... until March 2nd, and they couldn't be happier! In fact, they are pulling out all the stops to provide an exciting, romantic alternative to the regular visit to a museum... as only the Frazier can do!

For the next three Saturday nights (January 18, 25, and February 1), Date Night In Paris will be offered from 5 until 9... an elegant way to visit the museum and the special Napoleon exhibit. First, it is just wonderful to be in the museum after dark. It just brings a different air to the entire experience! Second, this will not just be a normal walk through the museum, as there will be a French music, lessons, films, and special gallery talks and tours. Third, there will even be a cash bar! (I tell you, they think of everything!)

For the next few Saturdays, the Frazier History Museum takes date night to the most romantic city in the world, so do not miss out! This seriously beats a movie and a tub of popcorn!
