

Behind The Emerald Curtain

By Angela Ash

Manhattan is full of magic. It is truly a place where dreams are fulfilled and stars are born. And there is no better way to take a peak into the world of Broadway than by attending Behind the Emerald Curtain.

Visitors will get a beind-the-scenes look at Wicked on a tour that is led by none other than Wicked cast members!

For those of you out there that find yourself humming Wicked showtunes on a daily basis, this tour will make your head spin! You will have the opportunity to view memorabilia and costumes from the addictive musical... including pieces worn by Idina Menzel and Kristin Chenoweth in its original run.

Even if you have never seen Wicked, the information that you will take away applies to any production, and it will give you a first-hand look at the many details that go into developing a Broadway play! If you are even remotely interested in the theater, this is a MUST DO!
