Conveniently located right inside of the Trump Taj Mahal, you don't have to go far to experience one of the best meals of your life! Robert's Steakhouse of New York is now open in Atlantic City, and they may change the way you think about steak forever.

Robert's is just in a wonderful space. It is elegant and sophisticated, yet incredibly comfortable and alluring. The lighting is soft... definitely an encouragement for that romantic evening out.

And then there is the food...

It is often a slight exaggeration when someone makes a reference to the "perfect" steak. There are so many factors to consider, and one or two may be overlooked to just "round up" to the overall description. However, Robert's Steakhouse does actually manage to serve steak to an almost unbelievable perfection. The USDA prime meat is hand cut and dry aged in house, which creates a distinctive, delicious taste. Many choices are offered, such as the Filet Mignon, the Porterhouse For Two, the Rib Eye, and the Gold Label Kobe New York Strip.

And if you are looking for lighter fare for a late summer dinner, it would be remiss not to mention that Robert's has the best burger on the planet! You may think... go to a steakhouse for a burger? Well, this isn't just your ordinary fare. With a special blend of Prime beef, served with delicious "everything fries", this burger should rate at the top of your list for "Things To Eat In AC".

The Wild Mushroom Risotto is also quite DIVINE! What exactly is this dish's secret? Let's just hint at the truffle oil...

The menu at Robert's Steakhouse offers many other choices, including Jumbo Lump Crabmeat Cocktail, Grilled Lamb Chops, Herb and Caper Crusted Salmon, and large portioned sides like Creamed Spinach, Potato Gratin, and Beer Battered Onion Rings.

While it may be difficult, make an attempt to save room for the Vanilla Creme Brulee or the Apple Crumb Cobbler.

Making your selections at Robert's is simple, as that the most helpful servers imaginable are there to share their knowledge, as well as intuitively offer suggestions that please your particular palate. It's like magic!
