The Old Louisville Holiday Homes Tour is in its 38th year, and it is easily one of the season's most anticipated events! On December 6 and 7, from noon to 6 p.m., this annual event will put plenty of guests in the holiday spirit![]

Old Louisville is the nation's largest neighborhood of Victorian homes, which are breathtaking in every season.[] However, have you ever thought of what it would be like to peak into these picturesque abodes, when they are all decked out for Christmas?[]

Well, the Old Louisville Holiday Homes Tour can fulfill that wish. Visitors will step inside eight of these gorgeous dwellings, and experience what Christmas must have been like in a time when it was much more about the sentiment and less about the shopping! Guests will also tour the Woman's Club and the Conrad-Caldwell House Museum, who will also be hosting a high tea!

For more information, please visit the Old Louisville Holiday Homes Tour online, or call (502) 635-5244. Remember... this is an annual event, so be sure to mark your calendars every year for this festive, exciting holiday tradition!
