Since 1910, Acme Oyster House has been serving delicious food at fantastic prices, in a fun, lively setting! With that special flair that Louisiana is known for, just the right amount of spices are blended into each dish, culminating in a dining experience like no other.[]

So what are you waiting for?[] Let's explore the menu![]

The first thing that just jumps off the page are the Boo Fries.[] Take a heaping mound of crispy french fries, douse them in roast beef gravy, and then top it all of with plenty of cheese, and you are ready to start off your meal right![] But prepare yourself to save room for a few more options, like the Craw Puppies or the Meat Pies![]

And the Acme Oyster House will not disappoint those looking for a good, home-cooked New Orleans meal![] Try specialties like the Jambalaya, Seafood Etouffee, of the Red Beans & Rice.[] Feel like a mixture?[] Then order up the New Orleans Medley, with samplings of Gumbo, Jambalaya, Red Beans & Rice, and Grilled Smoked Sausage.[]

Acme Oyster House also has a gigantic selection of tasty Po-Boys to choose from, filled with favorites like Fried Oysters, Fried Shrimp, Fried Fish, Roast Beef, and Hot Sausage.[]

And if you're ready for an entire platter of taste bud pleasing fun, try the Fried Oysters, Shrimp, Fish, or a mixute of all three, served with french fries and cole slaw!

Now obviously, when you are in the mood for oysters, there is just no other place to go than the Acme Oyster House.[] Serving up both raw and chargrilled oysters, it will be difficult to ever eat oysters anywhere else again!

Be sure to visit one of Acme Oyster House's many locations, because you have to experience this dining concept for yourself!
