

Thank you, Sesame Street! This was the best children's event I have ever been to, and I have been to a lot. The show was never a bit dull. It literally kept the kids completely enthralled. (To be honest, I was actually pretty into it, myself! go Big Bird!) This is something that I would bring my little people to over and over. They were literally in the aisles dancing and singing and waving at all of the characters. They especially loved the black light effects. They were so amazed!

Keep it up, Sesame Street!
