Indianapolis is the capital city of Indiana, as well as its most populated. With plenty of things to see and do, it is also the prefect place for a weekend getaway!

Indinapolis is also easy to reach from any direction! Dubbed the "Crossroads of America", it is the junction for 6 interstates, 6 major highways, and 4 state roads. And these roads will take you anywhere from the zoo, to delicious dining, to world-class museums, to casino gaming, and to live music venues. Indianapolis is great fun!

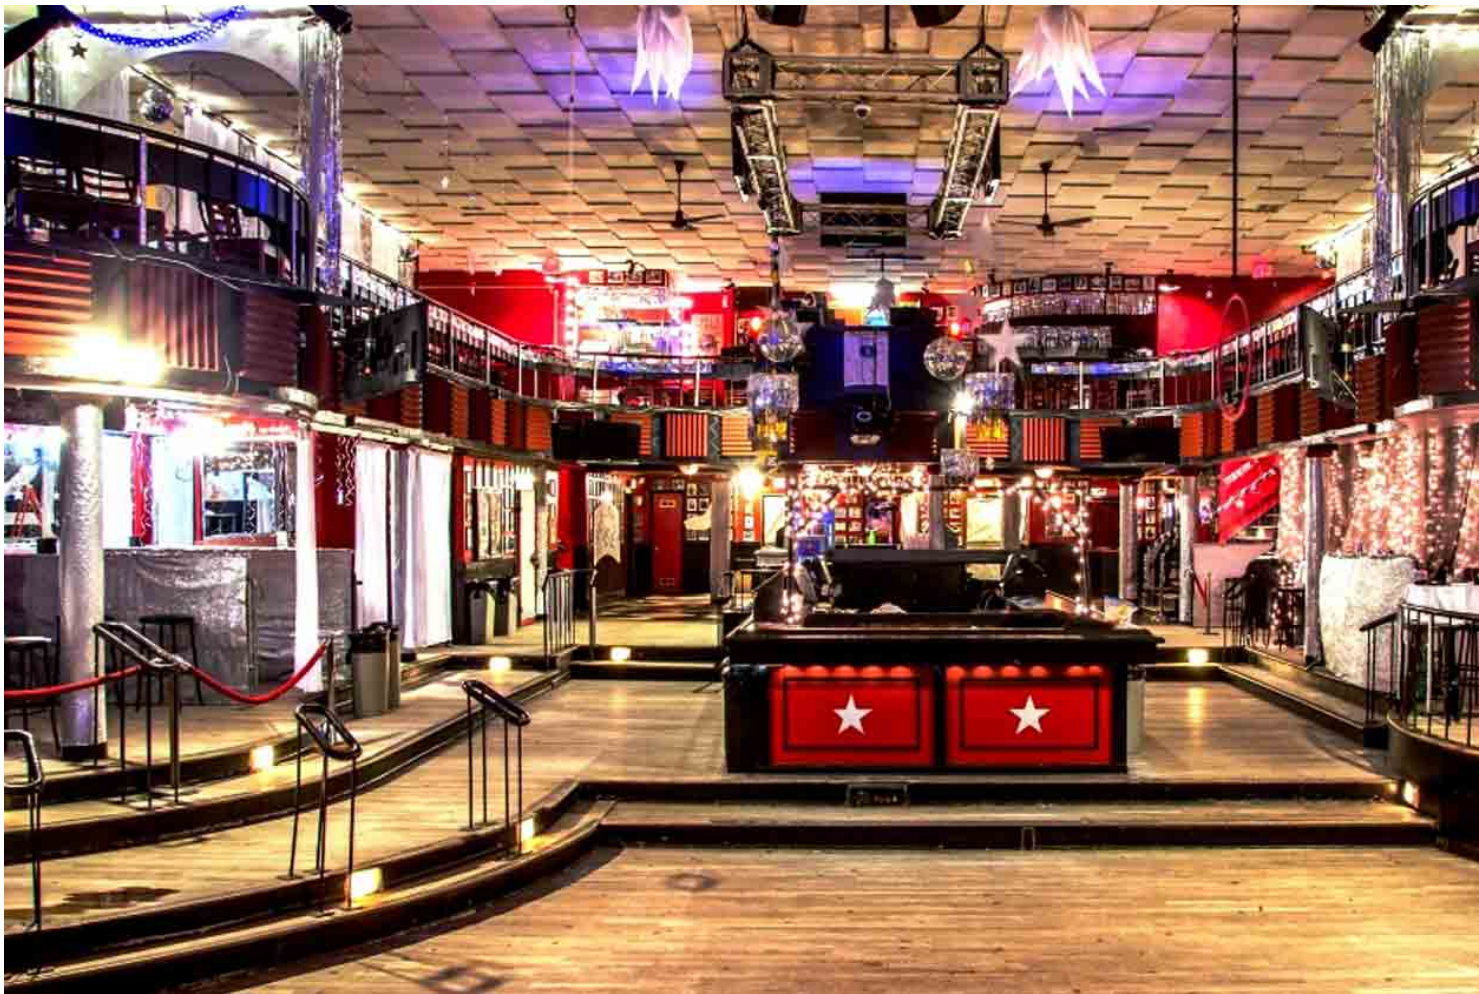

The Comfort Inn is a wonderful hotel option when visiting the Indianapolis or Shelbyville areas. It is located conveniently just off Interstate 74, and it is close to all of the action! Just a few miles from the city center, and just mere minutes away from the Indiana Grand Casino, an entire world of entertainment is just outside your door!

And while you are comfortably tucked inside of your "home away from home", expect mattresses that cradle you to sleep, with an option for firm or soft pillows. The rooms come equipped with a microwave and mini refrigerator, plus complimentary Wi-Fi. This property also features a heated, indoor swimming pool... just perfect for a relaxing swim after a long day's worth of sightseeing.

And when morning comes, the free, hot breakfast buffet is waiting, complete with waffles! When looking for a hotel that is both convenient, comfortable, and affordable, the Comfort Inn in Shelbyville is the perfect choice!☐
