While Broadway has many exciting national tours this year, be sure to place Motown The Musical on your calendar, playing through September 20 at the beautiful Aronoff Center in Cincinnati, Ohio!

This exhilarating step back into the roots of one of the most beloved genres of music is just absolutely refreshing. Adapted for the stage from Gordy Berry's own biography To Be Loved, this fantastic night of fun antics and memorable hits will take the audience back to a simpler time, when music was the nation's universal escape.
