

My Fair Lady

Broadway Across America

By Angela Ash

As the lights go down and the curtain goes up, it's easy to remember why a Broadway revival can be a stunning, beautiful thing. Perhaps it's the magic of mixing something old with something new, and being able to sit back and revel in the unique creation that it becomes. As anxious faces throughout the theater turn from mounting expectations to genuine exhilaration at the intricate sets and highly-detailed costumes begin to flood the stage, it's apparent that My Fair Lady is going to be a hit - in a number of revealing ways.

My Fair Lady is a show that brings back the glory days of memorable music numbers that should belong on any serious Showtunes playlist. These characters seamlessly flow from one scene to the next, including favorites like "Wouldn't It Be Lovely," "The Rain in Spain," "I Could Have Danced All Night" and "On the Street Where You Live."

Shereen Ahmed takes on the role of Eliza Doolittle as if it were made for her, while Laird Mackintosh brings Professor Henry Higgins to life in a fun, unexpected way that makes this performance truly unique. And with a delightful cast that adds character and warmth to each scene, My Fair Lady is not to be missed!

Details

Showing: February 8-20

Location: Aronoff Center for the Performing Arts in Cincinnati

Duration: 2 hours and 55 minutes with one intermission

Creatives

Book and Lyrics by Alan Jay Lerner

Music by Frederick Loewe

Adapted from the play by George Bernard Shaw

Adapted from the motion picture "Pygmalio" by Gabriel Pascal

Cast

Shereen Ahmed

Laird Mackintosh

Leslie Alexander

Martin Fisher

Kevin Pariseau

Gayton Scott

Sam Simahk

Lee Zarret

Tickets

Click HERE for more information.